H'CORMACK CONCERT LAST THIS SEASON

rish Tenor Delights Music Lovers with Varied Program.

For the second time this season John McCormack sans his way into the hearts of Washingtonians at Poli's Theater yesterday afternoon, using a program as varied in its numbers as it was excellent varied is its numbers as it was excellent in quality. Every seat in the large auditorium was occupied as a tribute to the final appearance of the Irish tenor this season. As in his first concert, Mr. Donald McBeath, viol.) soloist, and Edwin Schneider, accompanist, were the assisting artists and only the immense popularity of Mr. McCormack prevented their sharing equally the approval of the audience.

vidual songs for special mention is rather hard owing to the excellence of the enthe number, but in his old favorites, "Mother Machree" and "I Hear You Calling Me," he hit the popular chord. These numbers were both encores. On the regular program "The Soldier," "Reynardine," "Would God I Were a Tender Apple Blossom," "The Foggy Dew" and "Dear Lov., When in Thine Arms," steed out particularly.

Tender Apple Blessom," "The Foggy Dew" and "Dear Lov., When in Thine Arms" stood out particularly.

"Liebesfreud" ane "Mazurka," by Mr. McBeath, were the sest of sthe violin numbers, although every number was excellent. Following is the program:

"V-adore pupille sasets d'amore," from "Julius Caesar" (Haendel), "Morral sl." from "Rodelinda" (Haendel), Mr. McCormack; "Romance" (Wieniawski), Mr. McBeath; "Night and Dreams" (Schubert), "The Soldier" (Schumann), "Serenade" (Bleichman), "Devotion", (Strauss), Mr. McCormack; "Spanish Dance" (Granados-Kreisler), "Liebesfreud" (Kreisler), Mr. McBeath; folk songs, "The Lark in the Clear Air" (arranged by Esposito), "Reynardine," (arranged by Hughes), "Would God I Were a Tender Apple Blossom" (arranged by Millgan-Fox), Mr. McCormack; "L'abellle" (Francois Schubert), "Mazurka" (Wieniawski), Mr. McBeath; "Dear Love, When In Thine Arms" (George W. Chadwick), "A California Troubadour" (Henry Hadley), "One Gave Me a Rose" (Edwin Schneider), "Exaltation" (Mrs. H. H. A. Beach), Mr. McCormack.

Colored Linens that Particular Folks Will Like For the Summer Dresses

They are Fast Color. They are Creaseless.

These Linens are woven of pure white flax in 47inch width then mercerized down to 37-inch width and then dyed and shrunk down to 36-inch width. This is the most expensive method pursued for the making of linens and it is also the most satisfactory, resulting in so many advantages that the ordinary linen does not possess.

All colors and black, $1.00 the yard.
